POLICYHOLDER DISCLOSURE

NOTICE OF TERRORISM INSURANCE COVERAGE

Your policy provides or, if this notice is being provided in connection with an offer of new or renewal coverage, would provide coverage for acts of terrorism subject to all terms, conditions and limitations of your policy. You should know that under your existing or proposed coverage, any losses caused by certified "acts of terrorism" as defined in Section 102(1) of the Terrorism Risk Insurance Act of 2002 (the Act), are partially reimbursed by the United States of America. The term "act of terrorism" means any act that is certified by the Secretary of the Treasury, in concurrence with the Secretary of State, and the Attorney General of the United States – to be an act of terrorism; to be a violent act or an act that is dangerous to human life, property, or infrastructure; to have resulted in damage within the United States, or outside the United States in the case of an air carrier or vessel or the premises of a United States mission; and to have been committed by an individual or individuals acting on behalf of any foreign person or foreign interest, as part of an effort to coerce the civilian population of the United States or to influence the policy or affect the conduct of the United States Government by coercion. As provided for in the Act, the United States of America pays 90 percent of the covered terrorism losses exceeding the statutorily established deductible paid by the insurance company providing the coverage. The premium for this coverage shown below does not include any charges for the portion of loss covered by the federal government under the Act.

The portion of your premium that is attributable to coverage for terrorist acts certified under the Act is: $ None.

For any policies and renewals issued on or after February 24, 2003, the above disclosure, modified to reflect your purchase of coverage, will be set forth in an endorsement to your policy.

FRAUD WARNING

All states other than OH, VA, LA, NE, OK, OR or VT, any person who knowingly and with intent to defraud any insurance company or other person files an application for insurance or statement of claim containing any materially false information, or conceals for the purpose of misleading, information concerning any fact material thereto, commits a fraudulent insurance act, which is a crime and shall also be subject to a civil penalty. (In DC, TN, and ME insurance benefits may also be denied.)

In OH: Any person who, with intent to defraud or knowing that he is facilitating a fraud against an insurer, submits an application or files a claim containing a false or deceptive statement is guilty of insurance fraud.

In VA: It is a crime to knowingly provide false, incomplete or misleading information to an insurance company for the purpose of defrauding the company. Penalties include imprisonment, fines and denial of insurance benefits.

Applicant and each other person signing below warrant that the information provided herein or in connection with this application is true and correct and authorizes the release of such information to Caterpillar Insurance and/or any party which may provide insurance to applicant, whether herein or pursuant to a subsequent application or request, to obtain from banks, credit bureaus and other creditors, all of which are hereby authorized to release any credit/financial information concerning applicant or such other person (including personal credit bureaus) as such party may deem appropriate, and to share all such information with the other."

The statements made in this application are complete and true to the best of my knowledge and belief and are made as a consideration of the insurance being applied for.

A licensed agent may receive compensation from Caterpillar Insurance Company with placement of coverage.
